WARRIOR

marion high school

marion, kansas

A school is more than a building. There is a special quality about a school, for a school may be compared to a construction venture. Only in this venture, the teachers are the architects and contractors. The students are the raw material and the graduates emerge the finished product with the books along the way being the building materials. After following a strenuous academic and extracurricular schedule, which in the future proves to be our blueprint for success, we are ready to weather the storms and joys of life. We hope that as you page through this 1963 WARRIOR that special moment (or moments) may be relived and many pleasant hours may be spent in reminiscence.

Foreword

Dedication

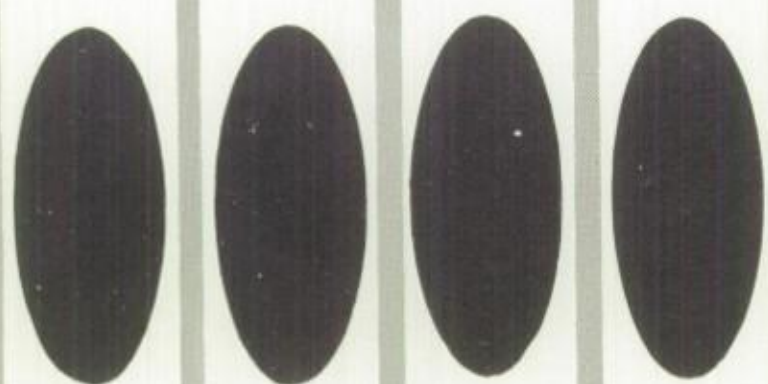

A dedication is made to a person, idea or object which contributed highly to the betterment and improvement of the students, the school and the community. Keeping in line with this, the 1963 WARRIOR is dedicated to a person who has done just this. For the recognition brought to this school and community by her efforts, we, the students of Marion High School, dedicate our 1963 WARRIOR to Miss Nadean Kruse.

Under the direction of Miss Kruse, the vocal music department has grown and developed immensely. Talent, hard work and enthusiasm on the part of Miss Kruse are three of the many reasons for her success.

To you, Miss Kruse, the students of M.H.S. offer our respect, blessings and congratulations on a job well done. In future years, many of our memories of M.H.S. shall "perish from under the sky, but music alone shall live never to die." For these memories, we of M.H.S. shall be ever indebted to you, and in gratitude we dedicate this, the 1963 WARRIOR, in your honor.

Miss Nadean Kruse

The image features a light cream-colored background with a series of vertical grey lines. Four dark grey ovals are positioned in the upper left, each centered on a vertical line. A large, dark grey, horizontally-oriented oval shape is located in the lower half of the image, containing the word 'ORGANIZATIONS' in a dark, serif, all-caps font. There are some faint, light blue smudges and marks on the page, particularly near the bottom right.

Student Council

The Student Council was composed of many capable representatives from each class and club in the high school.

Its activities included adopting a new dance policy and selling sweat-shirts. These activities were done under the guidance and direction of the sponsor Mr. Carr.

The Student Council was headed by these officers. President, Lowell Ensey; Vice-President, Ron Kelsey; Secretary, Helen Olsen; Treasurer, Tom Berry.

F.H.A.

This year, as in past years the Marion Chapter of Future Homemakers of America is one of the largest and most active organizations in our school. Throughout the school year, and sometimes into the summer months, the sponsors, executive officers and members, work to make FHA a success. Their activities begin with a Mother-Daughter Tea or by building a float for Old Settlers Day. Then the year ends with a combination Farewell and Welcome Tea for seniors and eighth graders. Another year is ending and success and accomplishment are behind, but the future awaits more progress.

M.H.S. Band

Under the capable direction of Mr. Conrad Steinel the Marion High School Band made a splendid showing wherever they performed. There were many appearances of the band this year, beginning in August and ending in May.

Among the first and many performances were the parades in which the band took part. Actually parades were just the beginning of the marching season for all bandsmen. Football season was at its height and every band member was positive he could play the Star Spangled Banner forward and backward.

The band favored the public with a mid-winter and a spring concert. In the midst of practice for the last concert, came the confusion and fear of Music Contest. The band can be proud of their ratings at both district and state contest.

Thespians

The Thespian organization is for students interested in speech and dramatics. Anyone interested may be a member, but only those earning a minimum of ten points are accredited Thespians. Points may be earned by participation in class plays, contest plays, and readings, backstage work for plays, and various other tasks connected with dramatics and speech work. The majority of the members are Juniors and Seniors. The students enrolled in the high school speech or dramatics courses are also members. This organization offers good experience and interest to students who are interested in dramatics and are willing to put in their time and effort on plays and readings.

SPORTS

F R O S H S Q U A D

With the opening of school in the fall of the year comes football. To the people of Marion, football means excitement and a chance to see their boys in action. To the boys themselves it means hard work, keen competition, and good clean fun. The 1962-1963 football squad achieved second place in the Cottonwood Valley League, thus proving their enthusiasm and enjoyment of the game.

Homecoming

CHERYL CASELMAN

In the chill of the evening of October, 1962 the school and town crowded the athletic field to see who would be crowned Homecoming Queen of 1962-63. During an extremely impressive half time ceremony the candidates came onto the field. The band members formed a crown around the candidates-- Miss Karen Higgins escorted by Keith Just, Miss Cheryl Caselman escorted by Ron Kelsey and Miss Jean Morse escorted by Lowell Ensey. After Karen was crowned, the royalty proceeded to their throne and reigned during the last half of the game and later at the Homecoming Dance.

QUEEN KAREN HIGGINS

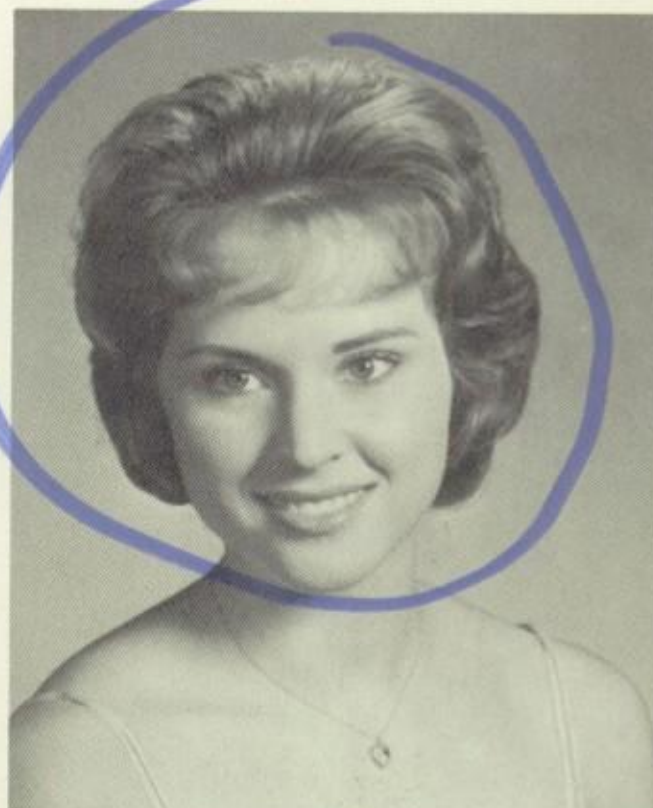

JEAN MORSE

Queen Of Courts

QUEEN DONNA HANSCHU

MARY KONARIK

On the evening of February 2, 1963, the students and faculty of MHS and the townspeople of Marion watched as the three star struck queen candidates proceeded to their throne. The royalty were: Queen Donna Hanschu escorted by Lowell Ensey, Cheryl Caselman escorted by Mike Schwimmer, and Mary Konarik escorted by Max Jackson. These three charming girls reigned majestically throughout the rest of the game and were the honored guests at the annual Queen of Courts dance held after the game.

The lights of Broadway shown bright in Marion on November 16th when the Junior class of Marion High School presented the play "The Night of January the 16th". The play was capably directed by Irma Wymore and Mr. Paul Flaming. Held at the Marion City Building, it played a full house and was well accepted by the public.

The play was based on a court room scene. Karen Andrea, played by Mary Konarik, was on trial for the murder of Bjorn Faulkner. Chris Hauser and Tom Tucker were the lawyers. The jury was chosen from the audience and the final verdict was "Guilty".

"... Young And Gay"

A cast portrait.

The Senior play is one of the many highlights in a student's last year in high school. Just so, the play this year, Our Hearts Were Young and Gay, offered many wonderful and humorous memories. The play concerns two girls, who, at the age of nineteen, go to Paris. The humor of the play is found in the many wild and wacky experiences of these two girls on the boat trip and while in Paris. To the many people who saw the play, it may have been just another Senior play. But to the Seniors it wasn't. Cornelia and Emily were on their first trip to Paris, but the wonderful trip was over too soon. This was a time when their hearts were young and gay. To the Seniors, their wonderful trip is over. Now, only memories remain. But they are very fond memories to be cherished always. Yes, this was a time when "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay."

Isn't he handsome ??

Did either of you happen to lose this?

"Try to understand what this means to me."

Contest Play

The contest play of this year was "The White Dove." It was given before the student body and was well accepted. It then went to the District Drama Festival and received a I Rating. After this came the State Festival where the play received a II Rating. The play consisted of five characters, and dealt with the destiny of a young bullfighter who had not fought for years. His wife forbids him to fight but still he does. His old friend, a crippled bullfighter has great confidence in him, but when the young fighter's body is brought back the old man can not understand. It was a very intriguing play and was well given.

"Rosa, why is it you don't grow old as I?"

". . .and above all bless and protect the ones I love."

"I have not stolen him of his own desire. . ."

A superb combo supplied dance music of any tempo.

Mr. Frickey jots down last minute thoughts for his speech.

"Garden Of Fascination"

The Juniors entertained the Seniors in a "Garden of Fascination" for the annual Junior - Senior Banquet and Prom. A beautiful garden, exquisite food and an atmosphere of candlelight gave the Seniors a beautiful memory of their last year at M.H.S. But the highlight of the evening was the return of a very admired teacher and friend, Mr. Edward Frickey, as speaker. Everyone in attendance thoroughly enjoyed seeing him again.

In addition to the banquet, the Prom was held later the same evening. A four piece combo from Hutchinson supplied the music, playing any and every type asked for.

An evening long to remember, the Juniors are to be congratulated on the beautiful decorations and, in general, a most memorable occasion.

Relaxing after a very tasty meal.

A beautiful "Garden of Fascination".

Final inspection.

An annual attraction at M.H.S. is the Open House which gives the public an idea of what many of the classes are doing. The first part of the evening was devoted to the displays set up by the Vocational Agriculture and Industrial Arts departments. Next, the Home Economics department held their Style Show, "Fashions Out of This World," which was, as usual, a great success. The German department was represented by two short German plays which, though not completely understood by all, were enjoyed by everyone. To show the public how M.H.S. was represented at the Drama Contest, the contest play, "The White Dove," was also given.

Final Thoughts

"IF"

Rudyard Kipling

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or, being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;

If you can dream - and not make dreams your master
If you can think - and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with triumph and disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by Knaves to make a trap for fools
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build'em up with wornout tools;

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings - nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you;
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty-seconds' worth of distance run--
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And -- which is more -- you'll be a Man, my son!

J.R.,

We had a lot of good times together and then there were bad ones, too. We seemed to find both. I did have a good two years with you and maybe someday we'll get together again.

You're a good kid and I do hope that we will always be friends. You have lots of ability and I know that you will go far and be a success if you put your mind to it. I want to wish you the best of luck in the future and in everything you attempt to do. Good luck always from a good friend!

May God Bless you always
